3.3 The aim of these Standing Orders is to make each meeting as efficient and productive as possible and to ensure that it is conducted in a professional manner, allowing the Chair to keep order whilst permitting each member the opportunity to fully participate in the meeting. All these issues are key to the Society as its functional structure is based on the democratic process, of which meetings are a key part.

4.0 Order of Business

4.1 The order of business at every ordinary or special meeting of the Society shall be in accordance with the printed agenda of business issued with the notice of the meeting.

5.0. Speaking

5.1 The mover of a motion or amendment shall be allowed up to 5 minutes in which to state the case. The mover of the motion shall also have the right to reply at the end of the discussion, and in replying shall be confined to answering previous speakers and shall not be permitted to introduce new matters into the debate. Up to 5 minutes shall be allowed for this right of reply after which the motion shall be put to the vote.

5.2 In regard to any motion or amendment no other speaker shall be allowed more than 5 minutes except with the permission of the Chair. No amendments to motions shall be accepted at a general meeting unless the notice convening the meeting has made clear that motions may be amended at the meeting. Amendments will require a proposer and seconder and will be subject to voting at the meeting itself.

5.3 Every member who wishes to speak shall address the Chair and confine their speech to the subject under discussion.

5.4 No member shall address the meeting more than once on the same subject except as provided in 5.1 and 5.2.

5.5 The Chair may invite an officer or professional advisor of the Society present at the meeting to give a report and/or to respond to any comments or questions raised by a member.

5.6 In response to any questions or comments raised by a member, the Chair reserves the right to arrange for a written response to be forwarded to the member in due course.

6.0 Closure of Debate

6.1 The Chair shall reserve the right to terminate any meeting for reasons of time not earlier than two and-a-half hours after the commencement time specified in the notice of the meeting.

7.0 Chair of Meetings and voting

7.1 The Chair shall facilitate general meetings. If they are absent or unwilling to act at the time any meeting proceeds to business then another Society Board member shall facilitate the meeting. If no other Society Board member is present or willing to act, the members present shall choose either one of their number or an independent person recommended by the Society Board to be the Chair for that meeting. If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the general meeting was due to commence, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chair must adjourn the meeting for at least 7 days. If within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting was due to commence a quorum is not present, the Members present shall constitute a quorum.

7.2 The Chair may call attention to continued irrelevance, repetition, unbecoming language or any breach of order on the part of a member and may direct such member to discontinue their speech.

7.3 If the Chair or any member present considers that a motion or amendment has been discussed sufficiently, they may move that the motion or amendment shall at once be put to the vote, and the matter shall be decided by a simple majority. This may include the facility for online and/or postal voting on the motion (or motion amended at the meeting) for a limited time period after the general meeting to allow additional Society members to participate. If online and/or postal voting is to take place any votes cast at the meeting itself will be counted but the result will not be declared until online and/or postal voting has been completed at which point the overall result will be communicated to members.

7.4 The decisions of the Chair on any point shall be accepted by the meeting. However a decision may be challenged by a member present, in which case a motion to overturn it may be put and decided by a simple majority.

7.5 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or a poll, the Chair shall not have a second or casting vote and the resolution shall be deemed to not have been carried.
